BACKGROUND ON SENIOR COUNSEL SCHEME

Senior Counsel are selected, pursuant to section 30 of the Legal Profession Act, Cap 161, by a Selection Committee. Appointment as Senior Counsel is an accolade given to those who possess outstanding ability as advocates, extensive knowledge of the law and the highest professional standing.

Persons holding office as Solicitor-General and Attorney-General are appointed Senior Counsel pursuant to sections 30(7) and 30(8) of the Legal Profession Act. Senior Counsel who are appointed to a judicial office (other than as a judge of the Supreme Court) will cease to use the Senior Counsel designation for the period of service in judicial office.

Senior Counsel appointed as a judge of the Supreme Court will cease to use the designation altogether (unless he is appointed Attorney-General).

ABRAHAM VERGIS SC (AGED 46)

MANAGING DIRECTOR, PROVIDENCE LAW ASIA

Abraham Vergis is a Singapore court advocate and counsel for international arbitrations. He is the founder and Managing Director of Providence Law Asia, an independent dispute resolution boutique he established in 2012. His counsel practice centers around corporate & commercial litigation, international arbitrations, insolvency and restructuring, financial crimes, and international fraud and asset recovery. Abraham has a team of 12 counsel supporting him.

He has 21 years of experience in contentious work across Asia. He works closely with leading lawyers from Singapore and other jurisdictions and is regularly instructed as counsel in Singapore litigation by international law firms and foreign law practices. In the past four years, Abraham has successfully defended three cases before the Singapore International Commercial Courts, each presided by International Judges from the UK.

In the international arbitration space, Abraham routinely handles complex commercial or technical disputes across diverse industry verticals: construction, infrastructure, mining, telecoms, satellites, and technology disputes. Abraham has successfully secured a multi-million-dollar international arbitration award against a foreign government for breach of a 20-year BOT contract. He was named “Managing Partner of the Year” and shortlisted for “Dispute Resolution Lawyer of the Year” at the Asian Legal Business SE Awards 2019. He was a finalist for “Asia’s Dispute Star of the Year” at the AsiaLaw and Benchmark Litigation Asia Pacific Dispute Resolution Awards.

Abraham’s practice was recognized as “Southeast Asia’s Dispute Resolution Boutique Practice of the Year” in 2017, “Southeast Asia’s Rising Law Firm of the Year” in 2018, and finalist for “Singapore Litigation Law Firm of the Year” in 2019, at the annual Asian Legal Business (ALB) SE Asia Awards.

Abraham is a strong proponent of pro bono legal work. He has served as the Chairperson of the Law Society’s Criminal Legal Aid Scheme (CLAS) Committee and has successfully defended a number of significant criminal cases pro bono. Abraham is the Subject Editor for the Advocacy & Procedure chapter for the SAL Practitioner Journal and has served on the SAL’s Law Reform Committee.

Abraham is a Fellow of the International Academy of Financial Crime Litigators (headquartered in France) and is recognized by Doyle’s Guide as a leading criminal defence lawyer in Singapore.

Abraham is a regular speaker at international law conferences, particularly in the areas of international arbitrations and asset recovery. He graduated from the National University of Singapore with an LLB (Hons) Degree in 1998. During his time in university, Abraham won the Advocacy Cup and was Captain of the NUS Varsity Debating team, representing the NUS at the World University Debates and regional tournaments. Abraham did his pupillage at Drew & Napier under Ms Indranee Rajah, S.C. and was called to the Singapore Bar in 1999. He spent 13 years at Drew & Napier where he rose to the rank of Director.
